

Privacy Statement

We need to collect personal information about you to provide you with our broking & related services. This privacy statement tells you how we collect your information, what we use the information for and who we share the information with. If we collect information that can be used to identify you, we will take reasonable steps to notify you of that collection.

Collection of your information

We will collect your information from you directly whenever we can, like from enquiries we make of you when you seek credit assistance from us. We may verify that information from sources referred to in the responses to those enquiries or in this privacy statement.

How information is collected from other sources

Sometimes we will collect information about you from other sources as the Privacy Act 1988 permits. We will do this only if it's reasonably necessary to do so, for example, where:

- We collect information from third parties about a loan or lease in relation to which you seek our services;
- We can't get hold of you and we rely on public information (for example, from public registers or social media) or made available by third parties to update your contact details; or
- We exchange information with your legal or financial advisers or other representatives.

When the law authorises or requires collection of information

Some law may require us to collect personal information about you. For example, we may require your information to verify your identity under Australian Anti-Money Laundering law.

How your information may be used

We may use and disclose your personal information to our associated entities, our brokers, our panel of lenders, other service providers and agents that we use in the ordinary course of our business, such as:

- Giving you credit assistance;
- Giving you information about loan products or related services including help, guidance and advice;
- Considering whether you are eligible for a loan or lease or any related service you requested including identifying or verifying you or your authority to act on behalf of a customer;
- Assisting you to prepare an application for a lease or a loan;
- Administering services we provide, for example, to answer requests or deal with complaints;
- Administering payments we receive, or any payments we make, relating to your loan or lease;
- Telling you about other products or services we make available and that may be of interest to you, unless you tell us not to;
- Identifying opportunities to improve our service to you and improving our service to you;
- Telling you about other suppliers, with whom we have arrangements, that supply goods or services that may be of interest to you;
- Allowing us to run our business efficiently and perform general administrative tasks;
- Preventing or investigating any fraud or crime or any suspected fraud or crime;
- As required by law, regulation or codes binding us; and
- Any purpose to which you have consented.

Disclosure of personal information

Lending Association and its representatives will never unnecessarily exchange your personal or business information with any third party for any reason, unless compelled by force of law. However, in order to assist you, we may be required to provide your personal information to certain organisations. If your information is not provided, we may be unable to assist you. The types of organisations include:

- Your representative or any person acting on your behalf (for example, lawyers, settlement agents, accountants or real estate agents); and
- Your referees, like your employer, to confirm details about you.
- Broker groups
- Referrers that referred your business to us;
- Financial services suppliers with whom we have arrangements;
- Valuers;
- Lenders, lessors, lender's mortgage insurers and other loan or lease intermediaries;
- Organisations, like fraud reporting agencies, that may identify, investigate and/or prevent fraud, suspected fraud, crimes, suspected crimes, or other misconduct;
- Government or regulatory bodies as required or authorised by law. In some instances, these bodies may share the information with relevant foreign authorities;
- Guarantors and prospective guarantors of your loan or lease;
- Service providers, agents, contractors and advisers that assist us to conduct our business for purposes including, without limitation, storing or analysing information;
- Any organisation that wishes to take an interest in our business or assets; and
- Any third party to which you consent to us sharing your information.

In providing your personal information you consent to us collecting, storing and using your personal information in the manner set out in this document and you consent to us disclosing your personal information to our associated entities and each of their officers, contractors, employees and agents who may collect, store and use your personal information in the manner set out in this document.
